

Louisiana Bankers Education Council Regional Luncheon

February 26, 2015 ▪ 12:00pm - 1:30pm
The Petroleum Club ▪ Offshore Room
111 Heymann Blvd ▪ Lafayette, LA ▪ 70503

The mission of this luncheon is to:

- offer a venue for bankers, who are up and coming leaders in the bank, to network with fellow bankers in their area
- offer a career or personal development speaker to the group
- build a regional advisory group for LBEC that will:
 - help to promote financial literacy to the bankers and other groups in their region
 - become a center of influence for the region – for example, when LBA needs bankers to provide information for legislation/regulation activity, or, to talk with legislators or Congressmen, this group may be contacted to support the cause; when groups contact LBA about bankers participating in local activities such as teaching financial literacy, opening a bank at school or supporting a financial literacy program, LBA will notify this group of the opportunity
 - be open to opportunities for the group to learn more about the banking industry and ways to support the industry we all call our own; legislation, regulation and Political Action Committees' activities
 - assist with annual luncheon coordination
 - consider regional activities for area bankers

Speaker

Gifford Briggs oversees the lobbying and governmental affairs for Louisiana Oil and Gas Association. He also directs the Political Action Committees of the Louisiana Oil and Gas Association (LOGPAC, RIGPAC, DRILLPAC). In addition Briggs manages the website design, social media outreach, video production and the marketing identity of the Association

Topic

Gifford will outline the impact that the drop in oil prices could have on Louisiana and our workforce and will outline the history of prices and what causes the fluctuations in the market. He will also give the industry perspective on what it will take to keep Louisiana's oil and gas industry relevant for the future and what major roadblocks stand in our way. A question and answer session will follow the formal presentation.
