About the Program

The 2011 LBA Leadership School, “Growing Our Next Generation of Leaders”, will meet every other month throughout the year and complete online course work and assigned readings in between meetings. The course will be limited to 25 people, giving attendees the opportunity for one-on-one time with the instructors and networking with other bankers in the course. Some of LBA’s most respected instructors will conduct half day sessions on technical banking issues.

SSA Consultants will deliver individual and team development activities to the participants, including:

- Initial assessments using the Hogan Leadership Forecast Series which includes the Potential, Challenge, Values, & Coaching Reports
- Provide participants with one-on-one coaching to discuss individual results and implications to individual and team performance and career development
- Facilitate leadership development sessions leveraging the Hogan results and SSA’s 40 years of leadership development experience
- Administer iCapstone online leadership development modules that directly support the facilitated sessions and overall learning objectives of the program

Who Should Attend

Current and future bank leaders from all areas of the bank.
