Featured Speakers

H. Rodgin Cohen is a partner at Sullivan & Cromwell LLP. He was chairman of the Firm from July 1, 2000 through December 31, 2009 and has served as its senior chairman since January 1, 2010. The primary focus of Mr. Cohen's practice is acquisition, corporate governance, regulatory and securities law matters for major U.S. and non-U.S. banking and other financial institutions.

Mr. Cohen has acted in most of the major U.S. bank acquisitions and government-sponsored and capital-raising efforts during the financial crisis and provides corporate governance advice to a large number of financial and non-financial institutions. He has played a singular role in the market events that have changed the face of the financial services industry and economy, and was recognized in 2010 by The National Law Journal as one of the "Decade's Most Influential Lawyers."

Barkley Clark's practice focuses on various aspects of commercial law for banks and other financial institution clients. His areas of experience include payment systems, secured transactions, bankruptcy, letters of credit, consumer credit and general bank regulation. For a number of years he has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America and is a member of the American College of Commercial Finance Attorneys and the National Association of Consumer Finance Attorneys.

Barkley is a partner with the law firm of Stinson, Morrison, Hecker, and a graduate of Amherst College and Harvard Law School.

Oliver Ireland's practice focuses on retail financial services and bank regulatory issues including consumer protection rules such as Federal Reserve Regulations Z and E, the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act privacy provisions, the Fair Credit Reporting Act, and all types of payment transactions, including compliance with NACHA rules.

Mr. Ireland's practice also includes regulatory issues applicable to bank and thrift holding companies and to national and state charter banks, federal and state chartered thrifts, and federal and state chartered credit unions, as well as other financial regulatory issues, including margin lending.

Mr. Ireland was named one of Washington's top banking and privacy lawyers by the Washingtonian magazine (2004) and he has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America as a leader in the field of banking law since 2006.

Oliver is a partner with the law firm of Morrison, Foerster and is a graduate of Yale University and University of Texas School of Law.
