

Legislative Update (Webinar)

August 10, 2018 ☐ 10:00am - 11:00am

The LBA successfully passed several bills during the recent state legislative session that will impact banks, savings banks, and savings and loan associations operating in Louisiana. Some of these changes impact how depository financial institutions are able to serve their customers. One important new law provides some new tools to help banks battle potential financial exploitation of their elderly customers. LBA senior staff members will make a concise and layman’s language presentation on what changes have been made and how they impact your institution. There will also be time for a question and answer session.

Who Should Attend:

All personnel having direct interaction with customers, including customer service representatives, tellers, and branch managers; compliance officers; deposit operations staff; and BSA officers.

Webinar Speakers:

David Boneno David has served as general counsel to the Louisiana Bankers Association since 1998 where he is responsible for advising LBA member banks, savings banks and savings & loan associations on banking law and regulatory issues, representing the industry in the state and federal legislative process, and representing the interests of the banking industry in the judicial system by filing amicus curiae briefs in selected litigation. David earned his Bachelor of Science in Finance from Louisiana State University and his Juris Doctorate from Tulane University School of Law. He serves on the Louisiana State Law Institute’s UCC Committee, Security Devices Committee, and Component Parts Property Committee, and he is also an American Institute of Banking instructor and regularly teaches seminars on Mortgage Loan Documentation. He is a member of the Louisiana Bar Association. He also serves as an assistant bar examiner for Code III.

Joe Gendron joined the LBA staff in 2007 after spending three years as staff attorney for the House Committee on Commerce of the Louisiana House of Representatives. His primary responsibilities are representing the interests of LBA member banks at the state legislature and with the Louisiana congressional delegation, and organizing the grassroots efforts of the LBA on issues of importance to Louisiana bankers. Joe received his Bachelor’s of Science in Accounting from Louisiana State University and his Juris Doctorate and a Bachelor’s of Science in Civil Law from LSU’s Paul M. Hebert Law Center. He is a member of the Louisiana Bar Association and served as a state district court law clerk to the Honorable Brenda Bedsole Ricks in the 21st Judicial District Court.
