LBA PEER GROUP MEETINGS

The publicly traded bank topics were presented as two webinars in April. You may be interested in purchasing the recordings to get an idea of how financial operations change when a bank goes public. Do you participate in BidLouisiana? If so, how does it work for you? Any CECL updates? What technology have you installed to streamline the accounting function of the bank? If you have had a recent exam, were there any new “hot buttons”? Looking forward to a great discussion on June 21. Register today!
