

Are You Ready for the New Data Privacy Laws? (Webinar)

February 20, 2019 ☐ 10:00am - 11:00am

Data privacy incidents continue to make headlines. As a result, new data privacy laws have been enacted to ensure organizations are protecting the privacy of their constituents. But compliance won't just help your organization avoid penalties - it will also help you avoid a data breach and respond quickly if one should occur.

This webinar will help you understand Louisiana's existing data breach notification law and prepare for the new laws of other states. We'll discuss what the laws cover and who they apply to, provide guidance for incident response and notifications, and explain best practices to protect your organization's data.

Learning Objectives:

- Outline the difference between information security and data privacy
- Gain a working knowledge of the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and various state laws
- Identify important next steps toward compliance

Who Should Attend:

This webinar will benefit technology, security, audit and compliance

Webinar Speaker:
