LBA PEER GROUP MEETINGS

Lots and lots of discussions about marijuana-related businesses, hemp, CBD oils, etc. Are you risk rating your customers/accounts and deciding who you will bank? How is this plan working for you? Several bankers asked for training on project management. What topics would you like to see in project management training? Are you having conversations about your core processing system and how much you utilize the modules you have? If you have had a recent exam, what questions were the examiners asking; did the examiners have a new and/or different focus from past exams? Bring your questions for the group. We are looking forward to a great discussion on October 23. Register today!
