LBA PEER GROUP MEETINGS

How are you approaching workflow management in your bank? Have you been successful implementing “back office” technology to streamline workflow? We are looking for topic suggestions for this fall’s Technology Conference. FDIC issued a Financial Institution Letter, FIL 19-2019, Technology Service Provider Contracts, that may require financial institutions to take additional steps to manage their own business continuity and incident response. What are your thoughts on this FIL? Have you tested your 2019 business continuity/incident response plan? Looking forward to a great discussion on June 11. Register today!
