

The UCC for Louisiana Lenders (Webinar)

August 1, 2019 ☐ 10:00am - 12:00pm

All states have adopted and adapted the entire Uniform Commercial Code with the exception of Louisiana. This webinar is designed to provide a thorough understanding of UCC secured lending transactions and how they work in Louisiana (and as compared to other states), including perfecting security interests, documentation, filing, analysis of lien positions, common mistakes and more.

This program is for persons new to banking in Louisiana and is also recommended as a refresher. Perfecting a valid, enforceable security interest on various types of commercial and consumer collateral is the focus.

Covered topics include:

- Overview and UCC definitions
- Article 9 secured transactions
- Perfection and attachment
- Rules of priority
- UCC forms and how they work: UCC-1 and UCC-3
- Common mistakes: debtor names, collateral descriptions, filing locations
- Titled assets
- Special rules for intellectual property
- Special filing offices

Who Should Attend:

Lenders, loan support staff and loan personnel at any level
