

Real Time Payments & Payroll Scams (Webinar)

July 1, 2020 ☐ 10:00am - 11:30am

Real Time Payments are a new trend that will impact financial institutions. This webinar will cover an overview of the new real time payments, the advantages and disadvantages of RTP and why banks will be more likely to utilize this in the near future.

Payroll scams will also be covered in this webinar. The new BEC (Business Email Compromises) is a common scam hitting financial institutions hard today. This webinar will demonstrate the most common scams today targeting payroll positions. Get into the mind of a cyber criminal to see how they use social engineering techniques to obtain the employees' credentials to conduct these scams. Mitigating these threats will be covered in depth, along with additional prevention tactics.

Who Should Attend:

Technology, Security, Human Resources

Webinar Speaker:

Susan Wind is a college professor who has taught, designed and implemented Criminal Justice Courses throughout the US for the past fifteen years. She has worked in different entities of the criminal justice system. For the past twelve years, she has been doing consulting work with financial institutions all over the US, providing training related to cybercrimes and security topics (i.e., money laundering, identity theft, atm/debit card thefts, fraud, bank robbery, active shooters, workplace violence, social media, etc.). For the past four years, she has been conducting research and offering programs to local businesses on cyber-bullying and social media awareness. Susan has published numerous articles on this topic and has developed curriculum for schools to implement in their training programs.
