

Planning & Preparing for Security Threats at Your Branch (Webinar)

November 5, 2021 □ 10:00am - 11:30am

This webinar will review the most recent tips on how to secure your branch (internally and externally) from a violent threat (including active shooter incidents). New technology will be introduced that helps with safety precautions. Different methods of planning and training will also be discussed in length.

Who Should Attend:

Security and Technology Officers

Webinar Speaker:

Susan Wind is a college professor who has taught, designed and implemented Criminal Justice Courses throughout the US for the past fifteen years. She has worked in different entities of the criminal justice system. For the past twelve years, she has been doing consulting work with financial institutions all over the US, providing training related to cybercrimes and security topics (i.e., money laundering, identity theft, atm/debit card thefts, fraud, bank robbery, active shooters, workplace violence, social media, etc.). For the past four years, she has been conducting research and offering programs to local businesses on cyber-bullying and social media awareness. Susan has published numerous articles on this topic and has developed curriculum for schools to implement in their training programs.
