Leadership Day

December 11, 2018 • 8:30am - 3:30pm
LBA • The Bankers Center
Baton Rouge, LA

LBA Leadership School Graduates have asked for a follow-up session to Leadership School so we are excited to offer this opportunity to Leadership School graduates as well as all interested in improving their leadership skills.

“Today’s businesses are over–managed and under–led.” Tom Peters
Tom Peters’ quote is right on target. Leaders in today’s organizations require a different skill set. The Leadership Day will focus on those critical skills that separate today’s effective leaders from yesterday’s ineffective managers.

The objectives of the day will be to:
- Develop your leadership skills
- Create a leadership vision
- Shift your paradigm from manager to leader
- Help all leaders understand how to build trust
- Explore the qualities that separate great leaders from average leaders

The major focus for the day will be in four areas:
- Building Trust
- Developing and empowering effective teams
- Coaching with an eye on developing team members
- Leading change

This session will be highly interactive and will include individual and group activities.

Who Will Benefit
Anyone responsible for leading others – managers, supervisors or individuals who have the potential to be leaders.

Workshop Instructor
Paul Hasney is the leader of Imagine Consulting LLC; a consulting firm designed to help today’s organizations meet the ever-changing needs of their employees and the marketplace. He has thirty (30) years of experience in the Training and Development field, fifteen (15) in the banking industry. His training experiences include Leadership, Management Development, Sales, Customer Service, Diversity, as well as the development and implementation of cultural change initiatives. He is certified by the Franklin Covey Company to teach The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People, Leadership Foundations, Focus – Achieving Your Highest Priorities and Leading at the Speed of Trust. Besides his training expertise, Paul also has over fourteen (14) years of management experience. He holds a BS degree in Education from the University of New Orleans.

As a consultant, Paul has focused his energy in the areas of training design and delivery, strategic planning and the people side of organizational change.
