BANK COUNSEL

2017 Bank Counsel Conference

December 7-8, 2017

Windsor Court Hotel

New Orleans, LA

The 2017 LBA Bank Counsel Conference will include two days of presentations on recent state legislation and court decisions involving banking and commercial laws, as well as presentations on federal banking regulations and other current issues.

Location

Windsor Court Hotel
300 Gravier Street
New Orleans, LA 70112

Registration Fee

$495, per LBA member
$695, per non-member

Who Should Attend

The conference agenda focuses on issues of concern to both bankers and their legal counsel. This program is designed to benefit in-house bank counsel, private practitioners in the banking and commercial law fields and bank officers. Compliance officers and other senior bank executives regularly attend this conference.

Hotel Information at Windsor Court

The LBA has contracted for a set number of sleeping rooms at the Windsor Court Hotel based on the last few years' attendance. We will monitor the room pickup and add rooms if available. We encourage you to make your reservations early. To ensure the LBA group rate of $225+ tax/night, please call 1-800-262-2662 and identify that you are booking with the LBA Bank Counsel Conference Room Block. To book your reservation online, please click here.

(Rooms are available in the block for Wednesday 12/6, Thursday 12/7, Friday 12/8 and Saturday 12/9)

Sleeping room reservations must be made by November 15, 2017 at 5:00pm or until the block of rooms for LBA is filled, whichever is sooner. After November 15, 2017, reservations will be made based on availability and the hotel may not be able to honor the discounted rate.

Featured Speakers

Steven O. Weise is a partner in the Corporate Department of Proskauer Rose, LLP and practices in all areas of commercial law. Steven's experience in financing is extensive, especially in those secured by personal property, including structured financing. He also handles matters involving California real property anti-deficiency laws, workouts, guarantees, sales of goods, equipment leasing, commercial paper and checks, letters of credit, and investment securities. Steven's experience covers e-commerce, contract law (including "plain English" drafting), legal opinions, and consumer credit law compliance matters. In addition, Steven lectures widely on commercial law topics and legal opinion letters and is the author of over 100 articles on these topics.

Anand Raman is the co-leader of Skadden's Consumer Financial Services practice. He has extensive experience representing financial institutions in connection with complex government investigations, class action litigation, enforcement, regulatory and administrative actions. The matters that Mr. Raman has handled span the entire range of consumer financial services issues, including fair lending, unfair and deceptive trade practices, subprime lending practices, automobile lending, credit reporting, mortgage fraud, redlining, credit card practices and mortgage loan servicing. He regularly handles matters before the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, the U.S. Department of Justice, the Federal Trade Commission, federal bank regulatory agencies, including the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Reserve Board and state attorneys general. He also represents financial institutions in commercial disputes and in connection with private class action litigation concerning the Fair Housing Act, the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, and state and federal unfair and deceptive trade practices statutes. Mr. Raman is also experienced in the fields of e-gaming and payment processing, and advises individuals and companies in connection with these issues and with tax evasion, fraud and false statement, and other criminal investigations and prosecutions by the DOJ. He frequently has served as counsel for internal corporate investigations with respect to the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act. Mr. Raman has substantial experience in the statistical review and analysis of lending data. He has published articles on topics including mortgage loan servicing, social media, third-party liability and lending risk management. In addition, Mr. Raman regularly speaks on various topics of interest to lenders and other consumer financial services companies. Mr. Raman is ranked in Band 1 in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business and is a fellow in the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers.

David Cromwell is a partner in the Shreveport law firm of Pettiette, Armand, Dunkelman, Woodley, Byrd & Cromwell, L.L.P. An Order of the Coif graduate of Tulane Law School, he is a member of the Council and vice-president of the Louisiana State Law Institute and presently serves as the reporter of its Security Devices Committee, which is presently undertaking a comprehensive revision of the Louisiana Private Works Act, and was recently named the reporter of the Law Institute's newly formed Possessory Actions Committee. He is also the reporter and chairman of its Coordinating, Semantics, Style and Publications Committee. He previously served as reporter of the Component Parts Committee and has also served as a member of Law Institute's Uniform Commercial Code, Lease of Movable Act, Rent and Annuities, Counterletters, Prescription, Tutorship Procedure, Utility Servitude, Water Code and Respite Committees. He is a co-author of Secured Credit: Louisiana and American Perspectives, a recently published law school casebook on Louisiana security devices. He is a member of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers and of the Bank Counsel Committee of the Louisiana Bankers Association, having served as chairman in 1994 and 2005. From 2004 until 2014, Mr. Cromwell was the Code III bar examiner of the Louisiana bar examination and presently serves as the Director of Testing of its Committee on Bar Admissions. He appears in Best Lawyers in America and is listed as a leading individual in the field of banking and finance in the Chambers USA Guide to America's Leading Lawyers for Business. He is a member of the board of directors of the Committee of One Hundred in Shreveport and is a member and former director of the Rotary Club of Shreveport. He is a frequent lecturer on security devices and other commercial topics.

BANK COUNSEL

2017 Bank Counsel Conference

December 7-8, 2017

Windsor Court Hotel, New Orleans

As we did the last few years, we will again “go green” with conference session materials. Each registrant will receive an email providing links to the speaker presentations and supplemental materials. The materials will also be available during the conference on our mobile website. The links will also be emailed again to registrants after the conference.

These materials can be downloaded and saved to your personal computer or printed for use at the conference. Printed manuals will no longer be provided by default to all registrants. However, you can request a printed manual by checking the option below. The printed manual will come at a cost additional to the registration fee.

Please note: The deadline to request a printed manual is December 1, 2017. This is also the deadline to cancel a printed manual order. After this date, materials will only be distributed electronically and no refunds will be given for canceled manual orders.
