

Highlighting FDIC Banker Resources: The Many Forms of Data/Information Available to Bankers (Webinar)

September 21, 2020 ☐ 2:00pm - 3:00pm

Please join us to learn more about the various resources available to our bankers. This webinar will feature:

- Sharing multiple resources available to bankers from the FDIC website that include call report information, bank data, bank supervision and compliance information, and hurricane information.
- Bankers will come away with a better understanding of what is available to them.
- New information appears on the FDIC website all the time.

Who Should Attend:

Any banker looking for industry data, peer data, and compliance resources.

Webinar Speakers:

Alan Bush returned to Dallas as a Regional Manager when the FDIC created Division of Insurance and Research. DIR established a presence in each FDIC Region to work with the supervision examination staff to enhance the ability to identify, analyze and report on current and emerging risks posed to the deposit insurance funds. Together, with a small group of financial analysts and economists, they keep an eye on economic and banking risks. In addition to speaking before FDIC staff, Alan frequently addresses other regulators, banking trade groups, graduate banking schools, and other stakeholders. Alan is a past president of the Dallas Fort Worth Association of Business Economics. He is active in his church and community of Coppell, Texas and is married and has two daughters.

Art Khan began his examiner career with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) as an Assistant Examiner in the Chicago-South Field Office in 1991. He received his Commissioned Examiner status in 1994. He later rose to the position of Review Examiner in the Chicago Regional Office in 1996. In 2007, Art assumed the position of Field Supervisor in the Chicago Region responsible for the compliance supervision of State Non-Member banks in the State of Kentucky. In 2011, Art assumed the position of Assistant Regional Director in the Dallas Region. Currently, he is responsible for the compliance, fair lending, and Community Reinvestment Act examinations of State Non-Member banks in the States of Texas and Louisiana.

Cindy Scott is the Assistant Regional Director in the Dallas Regional Office for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. In this position, she oversees insured institutions in the state of Louisiana and a portion of Arkansas. In addition, she oversees the information technology, internal review, and business continuity planning (hurricane preparedness) specialty areas for the region. Additionally, Cindy has worked in the Division of Liquidation and the Division of Finance within the FDIC as well. Cindy is a graduate of the University of Mississippi, Oxford, Mississippi, with a degree in accounting. She also graduated from the Graduate School of Banking, Boulder, Colorado.
