LOCATION & ACCOMMODATIONS

The Ritz-Carlton, New Orleans
921 Canal Street
New Orleans, LA 70112

GROUP ROOM BLOCK INFORMATION

If you booked a room reservation in the LBA room block for the original dates of the convention May 6-8, 2020, your room has been cancelled by the Ritz. You do not have to call to cancel your reservation. You will need to book your room reservation for the rescheduled convention of November 1-3, 2020.

The LBA has contracted for a set number of sleeping rooms at The Ritz-Carlton, New Orleans. We will monitor the room pickup and add rooms if available. We have contracted rooms for Saturday October 31 (limited availability), Sunday November 1, Monday November 2, Tuesday November 3 and Wednesday November 4. We encourage you to make your reservations early. To ensure the LBA group rate of $295+ tax/night, please call 1-800-826-8987 and identify that you are booking with the Louisiana Bankers Association Annual Convention Room Block. Click here to book your reservation online. If you would like to book rooms for dates before and/or after the convention (October 31, Tuesday November 3 and Wednesday November 4) we encourage you to call to make your reservation as there is a limited supply of rooms on these nights.

Sleeping room reservations must be made by October 9, 2020 at 4:00 pm or until the block of rooms for LBA is filled, whichever is sooner. After the block cutoff date, reservations will be made based on availability and the hotel may not be able to honor the discounted rate.

- Deluxe King Bed Accommodations - $295+tax/night
- Deluxe Double Bed Accommodations - $295+tax/night
- Club Level King Bed Accommodations - $445+tax/night

The Ritz-Carlton Club Level ensures an added measure of excellence at every moment during your stay. With continuous culinary offerings throughout the day and rooms designed to transport guests into their own Garden District mansion, it is the ideal place to conduct business, plan an outing or simply unwind.

Check-in time for all rooms is 4pm. Check-out time is 12pm.

Update on the Economic, Political and Business Climate
Roger Tutterow, Kennesaw State University

Six years ago, we cleared hurdles that were important steps back toward "normal". With the economic expansion well into its 11th year, the question has shifted toward concern over the maturity of the expansion. In this session, Dr. Roger Tutterow provides a timely overview of global, national and regional economies and as we navigate through 2020. Special emphasis will be placed on recent developments in trade policy and currency valuations, the ongoing recovery in real estate markets, the effect of changes in the competitive landscape on financial institution performance. We will also consider the outlook for consumer spending and the retail sector, the causes and effects of the recent movements in energy prices, the inflation outlook and implications for fixed income performance and the ongoing implications of changes in the political and regulatory climate for the industry and the Louisiana economy.

10:45am-11:00am  Exhibit Hall Break (Grand Ballroom)

11:00am-12:00pm  General Session  (Lafayette Ballroom)
Solving the Regulatory Riddle
Scott Polakoff, FinPro

1:00pm-2:00pm  General Session  (Lafayette Ballroom)
A Social, Economic and Political Perspective of Louisiana in 2020
Greg Rigamer, BDPC, LLC

This session will focus on the demographic and cultural characteristics of the state and their political and economic significance to our future. Several little-known and interesting facts about the 2019 Gubernatorial Race will be presented to demonstrate the demographic influences on our political process. The session will also address what we should look forward to with the 2020 Census and representation in D.C.

2:00pm-2:15pm  Break (Grand Ballroom Foyer)

2:15pm-3:15pm  Concurrent Sessions  (Choose One)
Building Your Bank’s Digital Payments Strategy
Tina Giorgio, ICBA Bancard

There is a lot of buzz about payments – real-time payments, faster payments, digital wallets – the list goes on. What solutions are just buzz and what solutions are here to stay? And more importantly, how and when does a community bank deploy them? This session will give you a high-level look at what is happening and what you should consider when developing a strategy.

Mandatory Continuing Legal Education (MCLE)

The Louisiana State Bar Association approved the original May 6-8 Convention Agenda (including the 6 hour Bank Directors Program) for 13 hours of continuing legal education. Since we are having to adjust the agenda, we anticipate receiving approval for 8 total hours for the rescheduled convention of November 1-3, 2020. Once we finalize the agenda and sessions for the rescheduled dates, we will confirm the total hours approved of continuing legal education credit.

If you are interested in applying for legal credit hours for the convention, please see the LBA registration desk at the convention for the form. For any other continuing education needs, the LBA can provide a certificate upon request.

GUEST PROGRAM:
New Orleans Museum of Art/Sculture Garden Tour, Shopping on Magazine Street & Lunch

Monday November 2, 2020
9:15am-4:00pm
$225/person*

*Cost includes roundtrip bus transportation and admission to the New Orleans Museum of Art/Sculture Garden and lunch at Ralph’s on The Park. Please meet on the 1st floor of the Ritz at 9:00am.

Schedule:
9:15am – depart Ritz
9:30am-10am -Sculture Garden
10:15am-11:45am – NOMA
12pm-1:30pm – Lunch at Ralph’s on the Park
1:45pm-3:45pm – Magazine Street
4pm – Return to the Ritz

Tour guests will be guided down Esplanade Avenue, "Promenade of the Creoles," to languid Bayou St. John to have a self-guided tour of the Sculpture Garden at the New Orleans Museum of Art. The garden is one of the most important sculpture installations in the United States, with over 90 sculptures situated on a beautifully landscaped site amongst meandering footpaths, reflecting lagoons, Spanish moss-laden 200-year-old live oaks, mature pines, magnolias, camellias, and pedestrian bridges. We will then move on to tour the New Orleans Museum of Art, the city's oldest fine arts institution that opened on December 16, 1911 with only nine works of art. Today, the museum hosts an impressive permanent collection of more than 40,000 objects. The collection, noted for its extraordinary strengths in French and American art, photography, glass, and African and Japanese works, continues to expand and grow; making NOMA one of the top art museums in the South. Lunch will follow at Ralph’s on the Park. It is nestled among the live oaks and colorful clapboard houses of Mid-City. At the heart of this eatery is New Orleans born and bred Chef Chip Flanagan, whose globally-inspired interpretations of local cuisine are influenced by the eccentricity, diversity and traditions for which New Orleans is known. Once lunch is complete, the group will make their way to Magazine Street. There the group will be able to explore the six miles of distinctly unique flair of many boutiques, antiques, art studios and much more.
Joseph M. Otting was sworn in as the 31st Comptroller of the Currency on November 27, 2017. The Comptroller of the Currency is the administrator of the federal banking system and chief officer of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC). The OCC supervises nearly 1,400 national banks, federal savings associations, and federal branches and agencies of foreign banks operating in the United States. The mission of the OCC is to ensure that national banks and federal savings associations operate in a safe and sound manner, provide fair access to financial services, treat customers fairly, and comply with applicable laws and regulations. The Comptroller also serves as a director of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and member of the Financial Stability Oversight Council and the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council. Prior to becoming Comptroller of the Currency, Mr. Otting was an executive in the banking industry. He served as President of CIT Bank and Co-President of CIT Group from August 2015 to December 2015. Mr. Otting previously was President, Chief Executive Officer, and a member of the Board of Directors of OneWest Bank, N.A. Prior to joining OneWest Bank, he served as Vice Chairman of U.S. Bancorp, where he managed the Commercial Banking Group and served on the Bancorp’s executive management committee. He also served as a member of U.S. Bank’s main subsidiary banks’ Board of Directors. Mr. Otting holds a bachelor of arts in management from the University of Northern Iowa and is a graduate of the School of Credit and Financial Management, which was held at Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire.

Roger Tutterow, Ph.D., is Professor of Economics at Kennesaw State University where he holds the Henssler Financial Endowed Chair. In addition, he serves as Director of the Econometric Center, an applied research center housed in KSU’s Coles College of Business. His analysis of the economic, business and political environments have been featured in a variety of media including Wall Street Journal, Financial Times, Business Week, Forbes, USA Today, Atlanta Journal Constitution, Arizona Republic, Florida Times-Union, Kansas City Star, Los Angeles Times, New York Times, Orlando Sentinel, Palm Beach Post, Wichita Eagle and on CNN, CNBC, NBC, Bloomberg Television, NPR’s “Marketplace” and “All Things Considered,” CNN-Radio as well as by regional electronic and print media. In addition to his work in academia, Dr. Tutterow has served as a consultant on financial economics and statistical modeling for corporate clients ranging from Fortune 500 companies to closely held businesses. He has provided expert testimony on economic, financial and statistical matters in state and federal court, before the Georgia General Assembly and before the Georgia Public Service Commission. A Georgia native, Dr. Tutterow holds a B.S. in Decision Science from Berry College and a M.A. and Ph.D. in Economics from Georgia State University.

Greg Rigamer is the owner and CEO of BDPC, LLC. Mr. Rigamer has forty years of professional experience as a management consultant serving corporate and governmental interests. He is also widely recognized for his work as a demographer and political consultant. His research and analytical reports have been quoted extensively in both local and national press and he is recognized as an expert in demographic and community affairs by the United States Federal Court. Mr. Rigamer received a Bachelor of Arts from Louisiana State University in Philosophy and a Master of Science in Urban Studies from the University of New Orleans. He was the recipient of the 2007 University of New Orleans Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Scott Polakoff is Executive Vice President of FinPro. He joined FinPro to co-lead its regulatory practice after serving over 22 years with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (8 years as the Chicago Regional Director) and 4 years with Office of Thrift Supervision as its Chief Operating Officer. From 2009 to 2011 he was a Principal at Booz Allen Hamilton as a leader in the core financial services group. His clients have included the FDIC, SEC, NCUA and the U.S. Treasury. Mr. Polakoff has collaborated with top-level agency leadership at the OCC, FDIC, and Federal Reserve, has testified multiple times before the Senate Banking Committee and the House Financial Services Committee, and is a sought-after industry specialist on banking and capital markets.

In this modern age where nothing seems to last, it is truly remarkable that a band of teenagers could form a rock group and maintain a celebrated relationship from 1968 to 2020. Much like the music they perform, The Remnants of Rock have endured and exemplify the best of rock and roll from an earlier era. The Remnants of Rock will bring their show to the 120th Annual LBA Convention & Exposition as the featured performer at the Thursday May 7 banquet from 6:30pm-9:30pm at the Ritz-Carlton, New Orleans. Not only will the show be a celebration of the 1960s, it will also celebrate the band’s 52 years of performing together.

The band originally formed as The St. James Group in 1968 and the members grew up within walking-distance of each other in the small town of Morrilton, Arkansas. The band shared the stage with some of the biggest artists of the 1970s and also engaged in recording projects for United Artists and Mercury Records.

The Remnants are composed of original band members that started out together in 1968, with the addition of the current keyboard player. Band members and their accomplishments are, Rick Calhoun, who founded the group as guitarist and vocalist and is also an arranger and songwriter having working with Grammy Award winning producers of groups including Booker T. & The MGs, Isaac Hays, Kenney Chesney, Dire Straits, Bob Dylan, etc. Rick also plays guitar in Governor Mike Huckabee's band Capitol Offense. Mark Calhoun, Rick's brother, plays bass guitar and sings backup vocals. Mark has also spent time on the road with chart-topping artists such as Alabama, Kris Kristofferson, and Olivia Newton-John just to name a few. Johnny Bradley has often been compared to Ringo Starr on drums and handles lead vocals on about a quarter of the group's songs. Mike Mitchell sings lead vocals and plays trumpet. Mike has a full dynamic range and performs most of the classic Motown soul songs. Tommy France is the only non-original member. He spent many years in Nashville and Branson as a piano player, arranger, and bandleader for The Platters. France was co-producer of the award-winning show “50s At The Hop” that ran successfully for twenty years on the Branson, Missouri theater strip. He has accompanied Bill Medley (The righteous Brothers), gospel greats, The Happy Goodman Family, and many other top names. France's recent credits include the Aretha Franklin Tribute show in Branson.

The Remnants deliver a celebration of the 1960s by covering only Billboard’s Top 40 hits with the majority of the songs being #1 hit records from rock's golden era.
