

Bank Robbery: What We Can Learn from the Past (Webinar)

June 18, 2021 ☐ 10:00am - 11:30am

During this webinar, recent bank robbery cases throughout the Southeast region will be analyzed. Looking at positioning of employees, cameras and structures internally and externally will also be discussed in this session.

Who Should Attend:

Security and Retail/Branch Officers and Staff

Webinar Speaker:

Susan Wind is a college professor who has taught, designed and implemented Criminal Justice Courses throughout the US for the past fifteen years. She has worked in different entities of the criminal justice system. For the past twelve years, she has been doing consulting work with financial institutions all over the US, providing training related to cybercrimes and security topics (i.e., money laundering, identity theft, atm/debit card thefts, fraud, bank robbery, active shooters, workplace violence, social media, etc.). For the past four years, she has been conducting research and offering programs to local businesses on cyber-bullying and social media awareness. Susan has published numerous articles on this topic and has developed curriculum for schools to implement in their training programs.
