Day 1: June 7, 2022 - Introduction to Financial Analysis

Day 2: June 8, 2022 - Tools of Financial Analysis

Day 3: June 9, 2022 - Advanced Financial Analysis

A series of (1) day workshop style training seminars offering comprehensive training for credit analysts/lenders. Ideal training for preparing new credit analysts for their responsibilities in today's economy. Attendees start with the basics of financial statements and complete the training by acquiring advanced credit skills. Experienced credit analysts/lenders can sharpen existing skills and obtain advanced tools by attending a specific seminar. Commercial Financial Analysis provides attendees both technical & interpretive analysis skills required in commercial lending. Additionally, attendees gain an understanding of the requirements for underwriting commercial loans in today's business environment.

Day 1: Introduction to Financial Analysis

Seminar Topics:

- The Financial Analysis Process: The Steps in Performing a Credit Analysis
- Sources of Information for Performing a Credit Analysis
- Basic Structure of the Income Statement and Balance Sheet
- Understanding the Key Accounting & Financial Terms found in Financial Statements
- Identifying the Key Factors Affecting Revenue, Costs and Income
- Estimating Liquidity, Capacity and Leverage
- Reconciling Net Worth
- Identifying Contingent Liabilities
- Recognizing the Differences between Cash Basis and Accrual Accounting
- Evaluating Compiled, Reviewed and Audited Financial Statements
- Determining Net Operating Income and Debt Service Coverage for a CRE Property

Case Study:

Using a business owner's personal financial information and their federal 1040 tax return with schedules C & E, we determine Global Cash Flow. We judge the ability of the business owner to service a proposed real estate loan.

Who should attend:

New Credit Analysts/Lenders who lack confidence in reviewing financial statements and performing an analysis. Small business lenders inexperienced in reviewing financial statements & analyzing loan requests.
